

Part-time Position Opening
NCAA Party Smart CHOICES
Graduate Assistant (GA)
VCU Office of Health Promotion
University Student Health Services

OHP aims to hire a graduate student who is interested in alcohol prevention. The graduate student duties for the Party Smart CHOICES program will include recruiting and scheduling student-athletes to attend alcohol education sessions, working with the Student-Athlete Advisory committee, being a member of the Social Norms Think Tank team, serving on the APPLE prevention team, assisting with NCHA data collection, and providing support for additional office projects.

Hours: 12 hours per week
Timeframe: Fall 2008 and Spring 2009 Semester (approx 32 weeks)
Pay: $12.00/hour
Supervisor: Primary supervisor—Katie Vatalaro Hill, MPH, CHES

Qualifications:

- Bachelors degree from accredited College or University
- Teamwork experience
- Effective public relations and communications skills
- Excellent organization and leadership skills

Please submit cover letter & resume by Monday, April 28 to:

Kristen Kidd Donovan (828-2086) kkdonovan@vcu.edu

How to apply:

Email, mail, fax or carry over your resume to the VCU Office of Health Promotion.
Sports Medicine Building, 1300 W. Broad Street, Suite 2200, Richmond VA 23284
Campus PO Box 842022
Fax: (804) 828-7949