

Brown Bag Lecture

Who Shall Live? Infant Mortality in Memphis, TN and Richmond, VA

Wed., April 22, 2009

12 - 1 p.m.

Medical Sciences

Building

Room 104/105

During this lecture, Babyland, a “20/20” ABC special will be shown, which highlights a black pregnant teenager living in Memphis, TN who is mentored to ensure a healthy pregnancy. The documentary will be followed by a discussion on the status of infant mortality in Richmond and the efforts to address this issue. The discussion will be led by Rose Stith-Singleton, BS, MEd, Project Director, Richmond Healthy Start Initiative.

Refreshments Served

This event is sponsored by VCU Dept. of Epidemiology & Community Health and the Center on Health Disparities. For more information, contact Nannette Bailey at 827-2075 or nbailey@mcvh-vcu.edu